

Children's Activities

During the weekend there will be a number of events taking place on site. This year's theme is 'Into the Forest'. Note: young children must be supervised by parents/guardians at all times.

Yoga for Young People

Flexing, stretching and moving to get your body going and ready for festival fun. (Saturday 14:00 and Sunday 10:30 in Top Hat).

Stories throughout the weekend in the Top Hat:

Let me tell you a story - Storyteller Marion Leeper will be back by popular demand. See what interesting things she has in her coat of BIG pockets.

The Story Scavenger Hunt – Make sure you see Marion on Saturday and collect a list of objects for you to look out for in your own time with your family.

Story building workshop - Once upon a time ..... join Marion in making up a tale of your very own - let your imagination run wild!! (Saturday 11:00)

Scavenger story finds - Stories incorporating the many items found on your scavenger hunt (Sunday 11:00)

Story Telling - Join in with leafy stories for the little ones and stories of wildness, wolves and danger for the older ones. (Saturday 13:00 and 15:00, Sunday 15:00)

Bed Time Stories - Time to wrap up warm and snuggle down to listen to your bedtime story. Bring a blanket, pillow, cuddly toy! Wear your pjs if you like! (Saturday 17:00)

Goodbye Stories - Join Marion for a one last story to mark the end of the festival (Sunday 16:30)

Ely Carnival Arts

Come over to the Carnival Arts tent area for a feast of art and storytelling activities for children and teens at this year's festival. Cary and Ricki will be helping you to make outfits for the carnival parade and taking you to the forest of your imagination. (Saturday sessions at 10:00, 12:00, 14:00; Sunday 10:00, 12:00).

Children's Activities

Timber Club

The opportunity to create a special festival souvenir in the form of your own art print created using tree stumps! (10.00 - 13.00, 14.00 - 17.00 Saturday and Sunday)

Maddog crafts

Pop along to Maddog Crafts stall where Naomi will be on hand to help you get creative. Lots of things to make and do!

Music Sessions

For all of the budding musicians out there!! Percussion workshops with Fara (Saturday 10:00 and Sunday 10:00) & Irish Tin Whistle workshops with Sylvie (Saturday 11:30 and Sunday 11:30) - Children are welcome to bring along any instruments they may have with them on which they can play a melody.

On Sunday you will have your 15 minutes of fame on the stage in Marquee 3 before the Family Concert.

Imps Creativity

New for 2019 we are excited to welcome Rachel with her huge array of free play equipment. Running on Saturday and Sunday from 9:00 until 18:00 with engaging play stations suitable for all ages there is no chance of you running out of things to do! The opportunity for kids to play, create & explore at the heart of the festival site.

Ely Rock Eels (Sunday)

Ely Rock Eels will be on site on Sunday afternoon selling their hand painted rocks, there is also the chance for people to have a go at painting their own souvenir rocks at 4pm. Rocks will be provided or people can bring along their own!

Grand Parade

Join the parade on Sunday through the Main Marquee and show the adults all of the things that you have made over the festival weekend. Let them see how to have fun! (Meet at Carnival Arts tent at 13:20, parade is at 13:35).

Family Ceilidh

How very exciting! Your ceilidh is at 17.30 on Saturday in Marquee 2 - the BIG marquee where everyone goes to dance - now it's your turn to share this big space! Enjoy an afternoon dancing with the Harbour Lights.

Family Concert

Everyone enjoyed David Gibb's Family Show so much last year, we've invited him back to do another one this year! It's in Marquee 3 at 16.00
